Norfolk Coachways Service 1

Important Announcement from Norfolk County Council

Norfolk County Council are sorry to announce that this service is going to be withdrawn from Saturday 24th February 2018. Norfolk Coachways currently operate the service under contract to Norfolk County Council and unfortunately they require more subsidy to continue to operate the service. Having fully reviewed the situation, we are currently unable to increase our funding.

We appreciate this will be disappointing to read, as there will be no service to Diss on a Saturday. However, the County Council would like to hear your views and ideas on what you would like to see from public transport from where you live, specifically, where and when you would like to travel. Your input will help us shape the current services around needs that you have identified and we can include them in our future reviews of transport in the area.

Please contact us with your views and suggestions, or if you require any further information by 28th February 2018.

Snowdrops at the Castle

When the snowdrops are out the castle we like to open the gates and invite everyone to see them, but usually at short notice because we don't know when this will happen. However, we suddenly realise that it is normally the same weekend each year!

So, please come on Sunday 18th February. Gates open from 1:00 pm (or earlier if we get there first) until dusk. We hope to see you then!

New Buckenham Society

The Society was delighted to see 50 or so walkers of all ages and their dogs for the 22nd New Year's Hair of the Dog Walk. It was lovely to welcome some new walkers to the event. The weather was kind although some local flooding had to be avoided. A splendid hot buffet lunch was enjoyed afterwards in the village hall, many thanks being due to the volunteers who cooked and served.

The Society also remembers Ken Gee who sadly passed away before Christmas. Ken was a keen and active member of the Society from its inception, contributing in so many practical ways; by helping to arrange meetings, organising the bar and keeping the wine flowing, and interviewing older village members for the sound archive. He carefully labelled and filed photographs, cuttings and memorabilia that constitute the Society's archive. His work for the Society will be remembered with affection and gratitude.

Ken cared deeply about the village and he undertook wide ranging tasks that included helping with fund raising, acting as the pinder for the Common's cattle and methodically recording the number of the Common's orchids over many years for Norfolk Wildlife Trust.

Ken Gee

Ken was quite a remarkable man and I was fortunate to have many dealings with him.

First, he was an active member of the Gardening Group and contributed to the Village Show in many different ways. The one we always remember fondly is that he supplied the wine that both we and the judges enjoyed at the Show lunch. He would also assist on the day with the plant stall, helping to raise more funds for us.

Ken also organised the various bus trips to gardens and villages, kindly subsidised by Freda Holman's legacy. These were very popular and places sold very quickly.

Ken was a key player in the 100 Club, which raises about £600 per annum for the Village Hall, collecting the monies and distributing prizes. Without him it could not have worked and he did this for 25 years with Bryan Hill and then with me from 2004. When he retired and I was searching for a new collector/distributor of funds, he worried about the future of the 100 Club and had Diana ringing me frequently. Fortunately Paul Madden has taken over the reins and, as I explained in an earlier issue, he has been actively recruiting and we now have 220 members. Ken would have been happy with that but it would have meant more shoe leather.

Farewell Ken, we will remember you fondly.

Alan Webb

Janet, Andrew and Mark and all the family would like to thank everybody who contributed to the collection for the East Anglian Children's Hospice. This amounted to £808.48, which we are extremely proud of. This was in lieu of flowers.

Cass

Thank you to all those who have sent sympathy cards. We have been overwhelmed with the number of them and the kind offers of help.

Cass died at home on Saturday 30th December, as was his wish, with family and friends at his bedside. He was 94 years old and had had an exciting life in the RAF for 19 years followed by 25 years in the motor trade before retirement. We shall miss him.

The auditions will take place on the 27th February 2018 at 7:30pm at the Village Hall New Buckenham. There are eight parts played by four couples. Set in three different bedrooms, this play is humorous from start to finish (with some adult content). So please come along to the Audition where you will be able to read the script and get a sense of this classic farce.

Good Companions

The last meeting of the year was the Christmas lunch, which was very good and enjoyed by all who attended. The entertainment by Andy York was brilliant; in fact he is booked for next year already! The committee would like to say a big thank you to Father Christmas and his helper.

There was no meeting in January and the next meeting will be on 15th February at 2:30pm in the Village Hall. This just leaves us to wish everyone a happy and healthy New Year.

Calling All Business Brains

We're keen to make the Neighbourhood Plan for New Buckenham the best it can possibly be. An incredible 84% of you answered the general questionnaire (huge thanks!), so now we're seeking more detail and we'd like the help of BUSINESS.

The Plan lets everyone have a say about how this village can develop over the next 20 years. 2036 may seem a long way off, but our children will be running things then, probably using Artificial Intelligence, driverless electric cars, etc. So, we need to prepare now. We want to ensure that village businesses can flourish and that New Buckenham is an attractive place to do business. We want to be innovative and cutting edge, so we need your help.

BUT WHO ARE YOU? Many people running businesses are behind front doors with no need for sign boards, so we can't easily find you to swap ideas and offer support.

WHAT YOU CAN DO: If you run a business or work for a business of any sort in or around the village, or if you work from home as a sole trader, run an eBay operation or Air B'n'B, or if you simply want to share your expertise and ideas about New Buckenham business, then this is your chance.

Contact us at info@NP4NB.online simply to say who you are and what you do. We can make sure you know all the latest info and you can fling us your thoughts (in confidence).

Just to get the ball rolling: how damaging to your work are the communications in the village? Have you got examples of how it affects your business?

Does the poor traffic flow cause your business problems? Or are you concerned that traffic might be diverted away from your business which would be bad for you?

How would electric cars affect you? Does parking matter? Should the village be promoted as a good place for business, and if so how? By advertising? Can we help our youngsters by offering work experience or apprenticeships, or business links with schools?

Village Hall Chairs Cleaned

Recent visitors to the village hall may have noticed that the chairs are now lovely and clean. Having been in constant use for about 20 years, a thorough professional cleaning was very much needed. The work was carried out by Stuart's Carpet and Car Care and the cost for cleaning 200 chairs was around £600. This was financed through funds raised at the August Fete.

A word of warning - although the chairs have been stain-proofed, it is always best to deal with spillages promptly as stains that are set are much more difficult to remove. So please, should you accidentally spill wine or Coca Cola on a chair, ask whoever is on kitchen or bar duty for a wet cloth.

Food Bank and Period Poverty

Thank you for all your continuing donations to the food bank, and a huge thanks to Carolyn Hupton, who is regularly moving gifts from Kings Stores to the collection point in church. Keep the stuff coming, to either box!

You may have read the recent article in the Diss Mercury about 'period poverty', where many women and girls are unable to afford basic sanitary protection. Food bank organisers stated that some resort to using socks and newspapers in the absence of actual sanitary products. The Waveney Foodbank has been contacted by 12 schools in the district requesting sanitary products this year alone, as girls will often miss school if they don't have protection. The report goes on to say: "These products can add up. For example, a single parent of two girls would need to find around £30 a month for sanitary products. That's a lot of money for some families, who may already be using the food bank to top up."

Please help if you can, by adding a few sanitary products and other toiletries to our food bank collection box. Thank you.

Susan Jowett (860929) & Carolyn Hupton (860216)

Rubbish!

It was noted at the last Parish Council meeting that some areas in the village are looking a bit untidy due to a build-up of mostly plastic rubbish. So join me on a village 'litter pick' on Sunday 11th March (weather permitting) starting at the Market Cross at 10:30am. Let's get our village ready for Spring!

All welcome, contact me in advance or just turn up on the day.

Bella Chirodian, Parish Councillor

New Buckenham Art Exhibition 2018

With Easter a little earlier this year, we are in need of getting things organised. One of the most important things is making sure we have enough help. I would be very grateful if you could tell us when you would like to help with this event. I have included last year's Helpers Rota (opposite) so that you can see where you kindly helped steward last year. We would love to have some new people involved too. All you need to do is contact Clive (01953 860572) and let him know what you would like to do.

Opening Night: Is Friday 30th March at 7:30 pm. You do not need a ticket, but admission will be £4 to include a glass of wine and nibbles. The exhibition carries on over the Easter Weekend: Saturday 31st March, Sunday 1st April and Monday 2nd April from 11 am until 4:30 pm. Admission is £2.

Raffle: Anyone who can give us a raffle prize would be much appreciated. These can be brought to Clive at the garage or the house. You can also bring them to the Village Hall on Good Friday morning.

Cakes: Our refreshments run over the weekend, which our visitors really enjoy. Can you bake a cake or make a few buns? That would be great. We need these to start with on the Saturday 31st March at 11 am. If you want to bring them on the Sunday that would be fine, but just tell us which day you will be bringing them to the Hall. Contact Clive to let us know that you will be bringing a cake please.

Important Note: Although this is a very social event, with many people visiting our Hall, it is a fundraising event which started over 25 years ago to raise money to build the new Hall. Now the money is used to maintain and improve facilities as well as donating half of this to our church – a building which requires huge funds to survive.

Hazel Rush

Jack Russell in Need of Respite Care

I am a seven-year-old Jack Russell, my name is Alfie. Many of you will know who I am, and may have seen me out walking with my owner. I spend some of my day sitting on my cushion looking out of the window of Dial House, where I live, keeping guard and barking at anyone passing who I think may need to be warned off. In the evening after dinner I like to curl up on the sofa with my master, and if the fire is alight you will find me stretched out in front of it taking pleasure from the warmth.

If you have a garden I will be quite happy for you to play with me twice a day and throw a ball for me to retrieve. Then I will not need taking for a walk. I am fed twice a day and that's it.

Anyway enough of that, I am looking for a human male or female who may like to take on the job of looking after me when my mistress and my master go on their holidays, or for a short weekend away. I will pay for my bed and board. Send my bill to my master who will negotiate a fee acceptable to all parties or email elvin211@btinternet.com. or phone 01953 861438.

Sunday 25th	11:00am	Morning Worship	2nd Sunday of Lent

News from the Pews

BOOK SALE - for the whole of February, all paper backs and hardbacks are 30p each. We need to make room for more! There are some very recent titles, so you can bag a bargain. The church is open every day from dawn until dusk, but marginally less cold at about 12 noon on Sundays, after the service!

COFFEE MORNINGS - we are hoping to start these up again soon, beginning with a Lent Lunch on March 10th, and running once a month through the summer. Any willing helpers, stallholders or bakers, past, present or future, please let me know, and watch out for future notices!
