Film Night, “Lion”, Saturday 8th July

Dev Patel and Nicole Kidman star in “Lion”, a moving film about a young man’s quest to discover his roots. This is the true and remarkable story of five year old Saroo, who gets lost on a train which takes him thousands of miles across India, away from home and family. Saroo must learn to survive alone in Kolkata, before ultimately being adopted by an Australian couple. Twenty-five years later, armed with only a handful of memories, his unwavering determination, and with the help of Google Earth, he sets out to find his lost family and finally return to his first home.

“Lion” is beautifully filmed and brilliantly acted. Don’t forget to bring your tissues, especially for the film’s emotional climax. Tickets can be purchased in King’s Stores (priced £4), via the website www.wegottickets.com, or reserved by contacting me. They will also be available on the night for £5.

Doors at the village hall will open at 7pm and the screening will start at 7:30pm. There will be a bar and other refreshments including ice-cream.

August Fete Monday 28th August 2017

I hope everyone did receive the update from June which was unfortunately missed from Parish News. (mea culpa, Ed)

As a reminder we have new attractions, a display of vintage cars and pony rides for the children. I also mentioned the need to borrow as many party tents and gazebos as possible, hoping we will have a lovely day again!

Just to reconfirm the collection arrangements for various stalls:

BOOKS - will be collected at Beech House by me (and David), either leave in garage or call me if you would like a collection. No magazines please, they do not sell and go straight to recycling.

JUMBLE & NEARLY NEW - can be left at Mill House Garage. As usual please bag these separately and label appropriately.

WHITE ELEPHANT - please contact Clive at Mill House, he will collect and put in our storage space, he is ready to start this now.

The tickets for the Main Draw will be distributed through the August Parish News so look out for those. Any potential prizes for raffle, tombola, especially bottles or other can also be left with me or at Mill House. Many thanks in advance for all the goodies you provide. As always running the fete takes a lot of help so the more the merrier. There are all sorts of jobs and any time you feel able to commit to would be welcome. It is not necessary to commit to the whole day, though we are very grateful to those who do. Setting up starts first thing, there are all the attractions to run and, often the area we are short of help, it all needs to be cleared up at the end.

If you can offer any help please speak to any member of the committee, me, Gerry Walsh, Clive Rush, Jon Halfacree, Ann Gascoyne, Sue Cattermole, Darren Rush, Rob St John Cooper, Simon Ballard or Paul Madden.

Ways of Looking

There was a steady stream of visitors to the Bucks Photo Show at the Village Hall over the Bank Holiday weekend and, judging by the comments in the Visitors' Book, they were a very appreciative crowd!

I must confess to having something of a problem with photography. Like most people, I have a collection of packets of "snaps" of the "point & click" variety, which are lovely reminders of friends and family and occasions, but beyond that...?

This exhibition, with works by over 28 photographers, showed that there were many other ways of looking and seeing. There were close-ups, portraits, landscapes and townscapes, studies of the effects of light, images of the amazing beauty of the natural world of fur, feathers and flowers. Also to be seen were fine reminders of our industrial past and its depredations and glimpses of how we live and eat now.

Drone photography and the use of mobile phones have brought us a long way from the darkroom of old, but how I loved some of the black & white pictures. There was in them such a depth of texture, of light and shadow as to make them almost colourful.

It was good to see a collection of work from the students at Wymondham Academy. The images were interesting, thoughtful and sometimes playful; evidence of some serious work exploring the power of the image and how it can be controlled and manipulated. Great good stuff!

Congratulations to all the contributing photographers and to Charles and New Barts for arranging such an interesting show - and providing, as usual, the delicious cakes, tea and coffee to embellish the occasion.

New Buckenham Easter Art Exhibition

After a lot of hard work by everyone involved we had yet another very enjoyable Exhibition, lots of great artwork, lots of visitors, lots of positive comments and lots of cake. What could be better? I normally post a spreadsheet detailing the event, but with all the historical information it has become a bit unwieldy, however if anyone would like a copy please let me know.

The event made a profit of £3,206.62 after expenses and insurance costs, which is shared between the Village Hall trust and the Church. In total since its inception the Art Exhibition has raised almost £68,000, a tremendous sum of money.

Thank you if you exhibited, bought, visited or helped out over the weekend and I would like to take this opportunity to especially thank Hazel and Clive who put so much into making this event the continuing success it is. So, roll on next year!!!

Jon Halfacree, Fundraisers

New Buckenham Players.

This is an early invitation to all you budding actors out there to put this date in your diaries, Tuesday 5th September 2017 at 7:30pm for the auditions for the forthcoming Christmas Pantomime, of “DICK WHITTINGTON” which will be directed by none other than Clive Rush. All are welcome, adults and children – we want you all. Do not forget, this will be another amazing Christmas show!

Also I would like to welcome anyone who would like to help in the green room with costume changes and makeup.

Kirsten will also be asking for ladies to help with the costumes as this is a big show. All hands and on deck will be needed, so come along, don't be shy. You can contact any member of the committee or Clive himself. We look forward to seeing you.

Village Hall News Summer 2017

As we approach the AGM it seems a good time to reflect on another year and the work that has been done, and plans for the future. It's been a busy year with much work carried out to maintain and improve the hall and facilities. Regular users will see improvements including the new kitchen door and a more robust tap for the kitchen sink. New thermostats have been fitted to radiators in the meeting rooms ready for the winter. Planned work to repair and decorate exterior woodwork should start in July. Trustees give their time to keep on top of all the jobs required to maintain a building for public use. Being part of something is always fun, but we are frequently reminded of how important this work is with the admiring comments from visitors, all thanks to the paid and unpaid work to keep it going. One major job planned for this year is the re-varnishing of the auditorium floor. This will cause the auditorium to be out of action for at least four days, probably in late August or early September. We apologize for any inconvenience this causes and appreciate your patience, but it needs doing and there is never a good time.

The cost for this floor restoration work will be paid from the 100 Club funds. Our thanks to all who contribute to the 100 Club and support the hall in this way. In particular thanks to Ken Gee who, along with Jimpy Casson, has spent many hours cajoling members and collecting subscriptions. Ken has now retired and his contributions over many years are much appreciated. His time and dedication have ensured that we have the funds to complete big maintenance projects in the village hall. Thanks Ken! And welcome to Paul Madden, who has taken on the job and will be coming round to collect subscriptions and of course deliver your winnings. If you would like to take part, do your bit for fundraising and enjoy an occasional win, please contact Peter Casson or Paul Madden (860850).

The AGM is coming up in July and all parishioners and hall users are welcomed to come along to the meeting, and hopefully contribute your views and comments on the future of the Village Hall. This is a community asset and we rely on the support and involvement of the whole community. The Trust is always keen to involve willing individuals in running and maintaining the hall. We look forward to seeing you on Tuesday 18th July at 8pm.

Juliet Fulford on behalf of New Buckenham Village Hall Trust

A Volunteer is Needed.....

The William Barber Almshouses Trustees are looking for someone to join our small committee to help us monitor and maintain the four almshouses in the Village. These houses were rebuilt in 1861 but were the legacy of William Barber who died in 1693 and are for villagers who find themselves in need. The Trustees also act as befrienders to the residents. So, if you are willing to give up a small portion of your time to keep this historic trust active within the village please contact me on 01953 861253.

Your Editorial Team

In response to our calls for assistance and back-up, we are delighted to welcome Richard Hoggett to our team. Richard has stepped in to ensure continuity. He will edit the August issue, and may well bring some ideas to enhance layout and production. There will be no change to the arrangements for contributions, please continue to use the email editor@newbucknews.co.uk or send by non-electronic means to Linda or myself.

The Editorial Team are very grateful to Simon Ballard for his considerable help in getting copies of the Parish News printed during the last year.

A Thoroughly Enjoyable Cabaret

On Friday 23rd June New Buckenham Players presented an entertaining string of musical and spoken-word acts, that were both visually and aurally pleasing to experience. The songs were performed very competently.

From the ladies who “Will Survive” to “The Yorkshiremen” it was tremendously absorbing, yet light enough to lift the spirit.

Well done to Hugh Lynch and all the performers, crew and of course the cooks!
